

Introducing

T[®] PROJECT 10MILLION

WORKING TO CONNECT EVERY STUDENT

We're committing to help close the homework gap by offering school districts free internet access and mobile hotspots for 10 million eligible households. And, due to COVID-19 many schools are completely online, so we're offering school districts low-cost options to increased monthly data plans to provide connectivity to their students for free.

Increase opportunities for success

The lack of home internet access has a devastating effect on student achievement. You see it every day. Let us partner with you to get students the equipment and connectivity they need.

T-Mobile assists educators across the country

We are supporting school districts by providing free and low-cost options.

Plans
